

RE knowledge & skills END OF KEY STAGE EXPECTATIONS linked to 2020-25 Agreed Syllabus

KS1	At the end of KS1, pupils will be able to:	Year 1	Year 2
Aim A: Knowledge & understanding	A1: Describe and explain beliefs and practices, recognising the diversity which exists within and between communities	✓	✓
	*Recall and name different beliefs, practices, major festivals, rituals, artefacts and ways of life particular to the religions and worldviews studied.	✓	✓
	*Find out about the meaning behind these.		✓
	A2: Identify, discuss and respond to sources of wisdom found in religion and worldviews.
	*Retell and suggest meanings to some religious and moral stories.		✓
	*Explore and discuss sacred writings and sources of wisdom, recognising the communities from which they derive.		✓
	A3: investigate the nature and diversity of different religious practices, ways of life and ways of expressing meaning.
	*Recognise different symbols and actions and key practices associated with religious communities.	✓	✓
	*Identify and make connections between religious communities.		✓
Aim B: Application & interpretation	B1: Interpret key concepts and ideas and apply them to questions of belonging, meaning and truth expressing their own ideas and opinions.
	*Explore questions about belonging, meaning and truth.	✓	✓
	*Express their own ideas and opinions about these questions		✓
	*Respond using words, music, art or poetry.		✓
	B2: Draw conclusions about what enables different communities to live together respectfully for the well-being of all.
	*Find out about examples of co-operation between people who are different.	✓	✓
	*Respond to this with their own ideas.	✓	✓
	B3: Articulate clearly learning about beliefs, values and commitments and explain why they may be important in pupils' own and other people's lives.
	*Find out about questions of right or wrong.	✓	✓
	*Express their own ideas and opinions in response to this enquiry.	✓	✓
Aim C: Analysis & evaluation	C1: Justify their ideas about how beliefs and practices and forms of expression influence individuals and communities.
	*Observe and understand varied examples of religion and worldviews.		✓
	*Explain, with reasons, the practices of the religion and worldviews studied to individuals and communities.		✓
	C2: Express with increasing discernment their personal reflections and critical responses to questions and teachings about identity, diversity, meaning and value.
	*Understand the challenges of a commitment to a community of faith or belief.		✓
	*Suggest why belonging to a community may be valuable, both in the diverse communities being studied and in their own lives.		✓

	C3: Appreciate and appraise varied dimensions of religion linking these to British values.
	*Understand and evaluate the value of diversity within religion.		✓
	*Identify and evaluate some religious and cultural differences between religions with the aims of promoting mutual respect and interfaith dialogue.		✓

KS2	At the end of KS2, pupils will be able to:	Year 3	Year 4	Year 5	Year 6
Aim A: Knowledge & understanding	A1: Describe and explain beliefs and practices, recognising the diversity which exists within and between communities			✓	✓
	*Describe and make connections between different features of the religion and worldviews studied.	✓	✓	✓	✓
	*Talk about celebrations, worship, pilgrimages, and the rituals, which mark important points in life.	✓	✓	✓	✓
	*Reflect on their own ideas and make a personal response.	✓	✓	✓	✓
	A2: Identify, discuss and respond to sources of wisdom found in religion and worldviews.
	*Describe and understand links between stories and other aspects of the communities they are investigating.	✓	✓	✓	✓
	*Respond thoughtfully to the beliefs and teachings that arise from a range of sources of wisdom within different communities.		✓	✓	✓
	A3: investigate the nature and diversity of different religious practices, ways of life and ways of expressing meaning.
	*Explore and describe the meaning of a range of beliefs, symbols and practices.	✓	✓	✓	✓
	*Understand the significance of symbols and practices.			✓	✓
Aim B: Application & interpretation	B1: Interpret key concepts and ideas and apply them to questions of belonging, meaning and truth expressing their own ideas and opinions.
	*Discuss and present their own and other's views on challenging questions about belonging, meaning, purpose and truth.			✓	✓
	*Draw upon a variety of creative means to further understand their knowledge and understanding of key religious concepts.			✓	✓
	B2: Draw conclusions about what enables different communities to live together respectfully for the well-being of all.
	*Consider ways in which diverse communities can live together for the well-being of all and how these might be applied.	✓	✓	✓	✓
	*Respond thoughtfully to ideas about community, values and respect.		✓	✓	✓
	B3: Articulate clearly learning about beliefs, values and commitments and explain why they may be important in pupils' own and other people's lives.
	*Discuss and apply their own, and others', ideas about ethical questions, including ideas about what is right or wrong and what is just and fair.	✓	✓	✓	✓
*Express their own views clearly in response to this enquiry.		✓	✓	✓
Aim C: Analysis & evaluation	C1: Justify their ideas about how beliefs and practices and forms of expression influence individuals and communities.
	*Observe and understand varied examples of religion and worldviews.	✓	✓	✓	✓

*Explain, with reasons, the practices of the religion and worldviews studied to individuals and communities.		✓	✓	✓
C2: Express with increasing discernment their personal reflections and critical responses to questions and teachings about identity, diversity, meaning and value.
*Understand the challenges of a commitment to a community of faith or belief.		✓	✓	✓
*Suggest why belonging to a community may be valuable, both in the diverse communities being studied and in their own lives.			✓	✓
C3: Appreciate and appraise varied dimensions of religion linking these to British values.
*Understand and evaluate the value of diversity within religion.			✓	✓
*Identify and evaluate some religious and cultural differences between religions with the aims of promoting mutual respect and interfaith dialogue.				✓